Meetings of General Assembly

1. An annual general meeting of the General Assembly shall be held once every year, and no later than six months after the end of the previous financial year ("Annual Meeting"). The business to be dealt with at that Annual Meeting shall include:
 - a. the annual report prepared by the Board and the accounts referred to in Article 25, together with the report of the auditor referred to in that Article;

- b. the filling of any Board vacancies.
2. Other meetings of the full and provisional Members shall be held as often as the Board deems it expedient and moreover within six weeks of receipt of a written request signed by at least one third of the total number of Members. If no meeting has been announced by the Board within fourteen days of receipt of such a request, the signatories of the request may themselves call a meeting.
 1. The meetings of the General Assembly shall be open to the representatives of Members, or to such other person, as designated by the relevant representative or their substitute or observer or their substitute in an extraordinary written proxy for this purpose, and notified to the Board, no later than the start of the meeting. The president of the Association can invite Foundation participants, Affiliates, members of the Advisory Board or other guests to the meetings of the General Assembly.
 2. The members of the Board shall also have admittance to the meetings of the General Assembly.
1. Unless these Articles or the law provide otherwise, all resolutions of the General Assembly shall be adopted by a majority of the votes cast.
 2. Valid resolutions can only be adopted at a meeting of the General Assembly, if at least fifty per cent (50%) of the total number of votes is present or represented at the meeting at which the relevant resolution is subject to a vote and less than half of the votes cast are abstentions. Invalid and blank votes are not taken into consideration when tallying the votes.
 3. Contrary to the quorum in paragraph 2 of this article, during an online meeting valid resolutions can only be adopted at a meeting of the General Assembly, if at least seventy-five per cent (75%) of the total number of votes is present or represented at the online meeting.
 4. Each Member shall have one representative on the General Assembly with one vote. All decisions shall be by simple majority except for those set out below:

The following issues will require a two thirds (2/3) majority vote of all Members and at least two-thirds of the total number of Members are present or represented and less than half of the votes cast are abstentions.

 - f. to amend the Code of Practice;
 - g. to adopt the budget and annual accounts.
5. A Member who is in arrears with the full payment of the annual membership fee has no voting-right until it has paid the outstanding amount in full. If a Member wants to apply for an extended payment period, it has to contact the Board or Secretariat within fourteen (14) days upon receipt of the invoice. If a Member has not paid the outstanding amount in full during a granted extended payment period, it has no voting - right until it has paid the outstanding amount in full.
6. Each Member is authorised to cast their vote by written proxy given to another voting Member.
7. In the event that the votes are equally divided on a motion, with the exception of a motion for the appointment of persons, that motion shall be deemed to have been rejected.
8. All votes shall be taken orally, unless the vote concerns the appointment of the members of the Board, or if the chairman considers a secret ballot expedient or if prior to the vote one of the persons entitled to vote requests a secret ballot. A secret ballot shall be taken by means of unsigned and closed ballot papers. Decision-making by acclamation shall always be permitted, unless a person entitled to vote demands a poll.

9. Any Member may request a resolution is presented in writing before a vote is taken.
 10. If all Members are present or represented at a meeting of the General Assembly, valid resolutions may be adopted by unanimous vote on all subjects submitted for discussion - including therefore any motion to amend these Articles or to dissolve the Association, even if notice of the meeting has not been given or has not been served in the prescribed manner or some other requirement as regards calling and holding of meetings or some related formality has not been fulfilled.
 11. Resolutions may also be adopted outside a meeting and have the same validity as those adopted at a meeting if the Board has been informed of them in advance. A resolution outside a meeting should be unanimously adopted by all Members in writing, which will be deemed to include telegraphically, by telex, by fax or by e-mail. In this context, unanimously means that the resolution is adopted by all Members who are entitled to give their votes without any abstentions or votes against.
1. The meetings of the General Assembly shall be chaired by the president of the Board or by a vice president. If the president and the vice president(s) are absent, one of the other members of the Board, to be designated by that body, shall act as chairperson. In the event that no chairperson is provided for in this manner, the meeting itself shall appoint its chairperson.
 2. Minutes of each meeting shall be recorded, which shall be adopted and signed by the chairman and the person taking the minutes. The contents of the minutes or of the official report shall be brought to the knowledge of the Members only.

In the next meeting of the General Assembly the minutes shall be submitted for approval.

Article 24.

1. The meetings of the General Assembly shall be called by or on behalf of the president. The term of notice shall be at least thirty days.
2. A preliminary agenda for the meeting shall be briefly set out in the notice.
3. Meetings of the General Assembly can take place anywhere in the world, providing that the place of meeting is readily reachable for all Members.

1. The financial year of the Association shall begin on the first day of January and shall end on the thirty-first day of December.
2. The treasurer shall be required to ensure that records of the financial situation of the Association shall be kept in such a manner as to show at all times its assets and liabilities.
3. Once in every year at a meeting of the General Assembly within six months from the end of the previous financial year - except when this term is extended by the General Assembly - the treasurer shall render account of his financial management in the past financial year and submit a balance sheet and a statement of income and expenditure. At the same meeting the president shall submit the annual report of the Board which shall include a report on the Secretariat.
4. The General Assembly shall appoint an external auditor for the accounts of the Board who shall report his findings to the General Assembly.

Persons without membership attending meetings of the General Assembly, members of the Board or working groups set up by the Association shall only be entitled to receive remuneration and expenses if these are agreed by the Board.

1. For further elaboration of the Articles the General Assembly shall draw up rules and regulations and may draw up such other regulations as may be deemed appropriate. The General Assembly draw up a code of practice which sets standards for the operation of a hotline.
2. Such regulations shall not contravene the laws of the Netherlands and the Articles.

1. No amendment in the articles of association may be introduced except by virtue of a resolution adopted at a meeting of the General Assembly, called by notice announcing that amendment of the Articles will be proposed at that meeting, without prejudice to Article 21 paragraphs 7 and 8.
2. From the day on which notice is given of a meeting of the General Assembly to be held for the purpose of taking a resolution to amend the Articles, until the end of the day on which that meeting is held, a copy of the proposal, containing the amendment verbatim, must be filed at a suitable place for that purpose for inspection by the Members until the end of the day on which the meeting is held. Furthermore, a copy of the proposed amendment as well as a translation in English shall be sent to all Members within fourteen days.
3. A resolution to amend the Articles shall require a majority of at least two-thirds of the votes cast and at least two thirds (2/3) of the total number of Members are present.
4. An amendment of the Articles shall not take effect until after it has been recorded in an instrument executed by a civil-law notary.
5. Each member of the Board, as well as a person designated for that purpose by the General Assembly in the resolution to amend the Articles of Association, shall be authorised to cause such a notarial instrument to be executed. Such instrument shall be executed in the Dutch language but as in the case of these Articles, a certified English translation of the document shall be made available to all Members.

1. The Association may be dissolved by virtue of a resolution of the General Assembly. The provisions of paragraphs 1, 2 and 3 of Article 27 shall apply accordingly.
2. The balance remaining of the assets and liabilities after liquidation shall be distributed amongst those who were Members at the time of adoption of the resolution to dissolve the Association such distribution to be made pro rata to the total sum of their membership fees paid in the year of dissolution.
3. The members of the Board shall act as liquidators if and insofar as the General Assembly has not designated any other liquidators.

Final statement

Finally, the person appearing made the following statement:
